

Strong Women, Tough Decisions

Today's women have to face many challenges that have never been an issue before, because they simply did not exist. In order to make appropriate decisions based on God's Word, women have to be properly informed. Allow what follows to assist you in meeting those challenges. Remember, you don't have to do it alone. There's help for you.

The new situations calling for Christian morals and values:

1. Surrogate motherhood
2. Kids, condoms, and birth control
3. Grandparents living with lover to keep SSI checks, pensions etc.
4. Homosexual marriages
5. Genetic engineering
6. Sperm bank babies
7. Psychic hotlines
8. Phone sex
9. Abortion
10. Organ donations
11. Cremation vs. burial
12. Single women using men for fatherhood
13. Sexual freedom and AIDS
14. Two career families
15. House husbands, stay at home dads
16. High divorce and remarriage rate
17. Dead beat dads

Becoming decisive can be a challenge!

1. Know what the Word of God says about the subject. (II Tim. 2:15)
2. Call upon qualified and wise persons who are experienced. (Prov. 15:14, 22, 23)
3. Seek to build your confidence and self-esteem (Know your God given gifts and spiritual weapons). (II Cor. 10:3-7 and II Tim. 1:6-7)
4. See yourself as God sees you. (Gal. 3:28)
5. Your solutions may fly in the face of being politically correct. (James. 4:7)
